THIS WEEK AT SCHOOL

Wow! This first week back has literally gone by in a flash!

We have certainly been making the most of seasonal events this week and lots of work, particularly in the lower years, has focused around the excitement of fireworks.

As always, Christmas comes early in primary schools and, as I write, I can hear the first carols of the season being sung. Years 1 and 2 have also started practising for their nativity performance meaning that festive vibes are starting to permeate the school atmosphere! We will be sending out more information about Christmas events and performances in due course, so please keep a look out for this.

We welcomed a very exciting group of visitors on Wednesday, in the shape of real-life Paw Patrol characters, who came from the Henry Allen Trust. They provided a wonderful assembly experience for our Early Years and KS1 children and we are very grateful to them for giving up their time to visit us and share their great work.

REMINDERS

School Photographs

The school photographer was in school yesterday and took individual and sibling photos for all of the children who were present in school. As usual, the proofs of these pictures, along with the order forms, will be sent out to us in the next week or so and we will send them home with the children when they arrive.

Non-Uniform Day

Next Friday, 13th November, is a non-uniform day to help us raise money for Children in Need. If children wish to come in their own clothes, or a themed costume, we ask that they bring a suggested donation of £1, which will be collected at the start of the school day.

Roadworks – Planning Ahead

This is just a reminder that there are roadworks planned in Church Street from 23rd November to 4th December. Part of the works will involve installing some bollards outside our school gate, where the rather muddy area and tree stumps are. These works are being arranged by the Parish Council and funded by HS2. Please plan ahead accordingly in terms of where you will have to park when dropping off and picking up.
